

Greater Vancouver Zoo – PRESS RELEASE

Date: June 15th 2015
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GIVING BACK - OVER 1,200 PEOPLE ATTEND ACCESS DAY

Aldergrove – It was a beautiful day to welcome back people of all ages and disabilities to enjoy our annual Access day at the Zoo on Monday June 15th. We hosted over 1,200 people for a fun day at an extremely discounted admission rate into the Zoo.

Back in 1998 was our first “Access Day”, now in our 17th year it is a small way to give back to individuals with a disability that sometimes find it hard financially; although are still very active and want to get out to see the wonderful animals that we have and in a very scenic park-like setting.

We have many of the same groups come every year such as Semiahmoo House Personal Development Program, Fraser Valley Brain Injury Association, Abbotsford Community Service Discovery Program, Langley Association for Community Living, Connections LACL plus many more attended the day; at $5 person for people with disabilities and free for their attendants.

And once again we couldn't not have done it without our wonderful staff and dedicated volunteers, who thoroughly enjoy this day as one of their happiest days of the year for them to participate in.
