

Become a Junior Zoologist

The Greater Vancouver Zoo invites children from 7 years and up to discover and experience Zoo conservation efforts at our 2014 Spring Break Jr. Zoologist Camps!

Monday, March 24th through Friday, March 28th

9:30 am – 4:00 pm

Through exposure to nature, we hope to increase children's empathy and understanding for conservation while having fun and meeting some new friends. Our camps will provide an opportunity for children who are passionate about animals to learn what Zoo life is like. They'll learn fun facts about many of our animals, including animals at risk like the Western Painted Turtles and Oregon Spotted Frogs. Children will engage in enrichment activities, make crafts, and play some games.

You are welcome to register for a day or a whole week, but please do quickly as space is limited.

Cost per day: $50.25 (includes GST and Quarters for Conservation fee)

Cost per week: $251.25 (includes GST and Quarters for Conservation fee)

Discount is available for Greater Vancouver Zoo members and registrations with multiple children (minimum 2).
